Dear Mr. Jackson:

I wish to acknowledge your memorandum of July 19, 1951, addressed to Mr. Armstrong, with which was transmitted a report on the security of [redacted] prepared by a Central Intelligence Agency field survey team.

ST

The Department considers this report to be an excellent piece of work, and I should like to compliment highly your Agency and those people responsible for making the survey and preparing the report. In accordance with your request, CIA's Office of Collection and Dissemination will be informed of the distribution made outside of the Department, and appropriate deletions will be made in the report where it is necessary to make available parts of it to the in-
